Our very popular recreational camps will be offered during three sessions, each with a special focus area (see above). These camps will include lessons and recreational play for the specific sport featured. Each day will include additional forms of recreational games and sports such as open swim, volleyball, basketball, golf, and a variety of fitness activities. Free to sign up for all sessions...your child will experience something different at each one! Each day will conclude with recreational swimming.

Important Note: When registering for Recreational Camp 1, please specify your child’s swim level. Refer to page 27 for assistance.

Camp Invention
Camp 2 (#CKC2)..........................June 25 - June 29

Calling all young inventors to a week long camp of discovery! Put your ideas to work in our special invention workshop filled with everything you need to bring your inventions to life. Unravel the mysteries of how things work. Join us in an adventure of experimentation and discovery!

Creative Minds
Camp 4 (#CKC4)..........................July 16 - July 20

Chemistry, engineering, art and more come to life this week as we create away! You’ll be using your curious and creative minds to the max discovering how the things we use every day are created. You won’t believe how much fun you’ll have learning a variety of new skills such as cooking, crafting and exploring the creator within you!

Outdoor Adventure
Camp 7 (#CKC7)..........................August 6 - August 10

Develop your teamwork, leadership and creativity skills during this Outdoor Adventure Camp. Activities include a variety of games and challenges, nature exploration, and wilderness activities. The week culminates with our Family Camp-Out on Friday, August 10. One adult must accompany each family during the camp-out. The camp-out is free to participants in the Outdoor Adventure Camp.

These one-week Preschool Play Camps are designed for 3-5 year olds who want to be just like their older sibling attending camp! They run concurrent with our regular summer camps and provide curriculum-based activities to engage and stimulate your child’s exploratory and creative mind. Sessions will run from 9:00-11:30 a.m. each day, Monday through Friday. Each day includes time for free play, large group, arts and crafts, snack time and various fine and large motor activities. Before and after camp childcare will be available by reservation. Space will be limited to eight children per camp.
