on else the are completely ignored.
by all double buffer registers.
I.E., all update blocks are either used.

In the update clock activation edge.
the Double Buffer signal must be held allow changes in the state of the
when a write cycle is underway.
Block these registers from updating values on the fly.
These are used to read the add address
The Double Buffer status registers