

Title:

Quantum opportunities in gravitational wave detectors

Abstract:

The sensitivity of the upcoming generation of interferometric gravitational wave detectors is expected to be predominantly limited by quantum optical noise. I will explore the origins of these quantum limits, and describe experimental progress toward circumventing them.

Best wishes,

Nergis