

Wolfgang Bauer – Colloquium 9/28/2017

Title: The Physics of Green Energy – Parking long solar panel project

Abstract: MSU is presently installing the largest solar carport array in the world. This is only one of the steps toward carbon neutrality of the university, as outlined in the MSU Energy Transition Plan. This talk will cover the physics and engineering challenges in integrating renewable power sources into the MSU micro-grid.