Title:
Characterizing Resonances with Jet Energy Corelators

Abstract:
Resonances predicted by new physics (BSM) models may be light and belong to different representations of QCD. We demonstrate how Jet Energy Correlators can be used to differentiate between various types of light narrow resonances at the LHC.